Speaker Biographies

Larry P. Arnn is the twelfth president of Hillsdale College. He received his B.A. from Arkansas State University, graduating with the highest distinction. He received an M.A. in Government and a Ph.D. in Government from the Claremont Graduate School. He also studied in England from 1977 to 1980, first as a research student in International History at the London School of Economics, and then in Modern History at Worcester College, Oxford University. While in England, he also served as director of research for Martin Gilbert, now Sir Martin, of Merton College, Oxford, and the official biographer of Winston Churchill.

He returned to the United States in 1980 to become an editor for Public Research, Syndicated, and from 1985-2000 he served as president of the Claremont Institute, an education and research institution based in Southern California. While at Claremont, he was the founding chairman of the California Civil Rights Initiative, which was passed by California voters in 1996 and prohibited racial preferences in state hiring, contracting and admissions.

Dr. Arnn is on the board of directors of the Heritage Foundation, the Army War College, the Henry Salvatori Center of Claremont McKenna College and the Claremont Institute. Published widely in national newspapers, magazines and periodicals on issues of public policy, history and political theory, he is the author of Liberty and Learning: The Evolution of American Education, published by Hillsdale College Press in 2004.

David J. Bobb is director of the Allan P. Kirby, Jr. Center for Constitutional Studies and Citizenship, and lecturer in political science at Hillsdale College. He also is founding director of Hillsdale’s Charles R. and Kathleen K. Hoogland Center for Teacher Excellence, a national civic education program launched in 2001. He earned a B.A., summa cum laude, from Hillsdale College, and a Ph.D. in political science from Boston College. Dr. Bobb is the author of several white papers published by the Boston-based Pioneer Institute, where he served as a research associate, and has also published articles in the Washington Times, Boston Herald, The American Spectator, Modern Age, Perspectives on Political Science and the Claremont Review of Books.

Paul Moreno is William and Berniece Grewcock Chair in Constitutional History, Dean of the Faculty, and Associate Professor of History at Hillsdale College. He is a senior fellow with the Kirby Center. Dr. Moreno earned a B.A., magna cum laude, and an M.A. at the State University of New York at Albany, and a Ph.D. in history from the University of Maryland at College Park. Dr. Moreno is the author of Black Americans and Organized Labor: A New History and From Direct Action to Affirmative Action: Fair Employment Law and Policy in America.
