

THE HILLSDALE COLLEGE

Hoogland Center for Teacher Excellence

SEMINAR SERIES ON TEACHING AMERICAN CIVICS

A More Perfect Union: Teaching the Constitution of the United States

A one-day seminar for middle and high school civics, social studies, and history teachers

- Faculty lectures
- Large group discussions
- Ideas for classroom content
- Curriculum materials

October 9, 2009

Coordinated with the Carter and Moyers School of Education

Lincoln Memorial University
6965 Cumberland Gap Parkway
Harrogate, Tennessee 37752

PARTICIPANTS WILL EXPLORE the structure of the Constitution and seek to understand the political theory underpinning its principles through lectures and seminar discussions led by Hillsdale College faculty and guest lecturers including:

- Dr. Mickey Craig, William and Berniece Grewcock Professor of Politics and Associate Professor of Political Science
- Dr. Terrence Moore, Assistant Professor of History, and former principal of Ridgeview Classical Schools in Fort Collins, Colorado

*This seminar is entirely free of charge!
All participants will receive:*

- a substantial reading packet of primary source documents;
- curriculum materials for use in the classroom; and
- a certificate of attendance.

(Lunch is included.)

Visit www.hillsdale.edu/cte for more information.
Register online or call (866) 824-6831.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT

Dr. David J. Bobb

Director of the Charles R. and Kathleen K. Hoogland Center for Teacher Excellence

E-mail: cte@hillsdale.edu • Phone: (866) 824-6831 or (517) 607-2491