

The Foundation for Teaching Economics

SUMMER SEMINAR

Economics for Leaders Program

A week-long seminar for economics, civics, social studies, and history teachers.

July 12-18, 2009
Hillsdale College
Hillsdale, Michigan

- PARTICIPANTS WILL EXPLORE the fundamental principles of economics in lectures and small group discussions led by Dr. Gary Wolfram, Hillsdale College William E. Simon Professor of Economics and Public Policy, author of Towards a Free Society: An Introduction to Markets and the Political System
- PLUS SESSIONS WITH master teachers and high school students
- PROGRAM BASED ON the National Voluntary Standards in Economic Education

The seminar is FREE, plus each participant will receive:

- $100 stipend upon completion of the program
- Free room and board
- Three free SB-CEUs (Michigan teachers only)
- Continuing education credits and graduate credits available
- Free curriculum materials and lesson plans

Visit www.fte.org/teachers/programs for more information and to

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT

The Foundation for Teaching Economics
E-mail: information@fte.org • Phone: (800) 383-4335