Hillsdale College Dedicated Campus Radio Station, WRFH 107.1 FM

Hillsdale, Mich. — Hillsdale College will dedicate its new on-campus college radio station, WRFH 107.1 FM, at a ceremony held in the Searle Center on Oct. 26 at 1 p.m. Professor John J. Miller, director of Hillsdale College's Dow Journalism Program, will emcee the dedication with remarks from Vince Benedetto, president and CEO of Bold Gold Media, and Dr. Larry P. Arnn, Hillsdale College president. The new station was made possible through a gift from Mr. Benedetto. The FM station broadcasts within a 5-mile radius of campus.

"The new campus radio station offers another great opportunity for our students here at Hillsdale," said Miller. "This station will give our students first-hand experience in the art of communicating over the airwaves to larger audiences. We are extremely grateful to Mr. Benedetto and his team for their gracious efforts in making this possible."

"We're excited about the value this station will bring, not only to the students of Hillsdale as they learn the art and craft of radio broadcasting, but to the community as well," said Benedetto. "I can think of no college better deserving of this than Hillsdale. Their educational outreach defending liberty is something everyone in America needs to hear."

The dedication program is open to the media. Please RSVP to Emily Stack Davis at edavis1@hillsdale.edu.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College, founded in 1844, has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 2.9 million.
