

HILLSDALE COLLEGE FREE MARKET FORUM

“MARKETS, GOVERNMENT, AND THE COMMON GOOD”

OCTOBER 12 - 14, 2017

*The Woodlands Waterway Marriott Hotel & Convention Center
The Woodlands, Texas*

HILLSDALE COLLEGE’S Center for the Study of Monetary Systems and Free Enterprise, in conjunction with the Acton Institute, administers the Free Market Forum series, which seeks to encourage the study of free enterprise by bringing scholars together for dynamic exchanges of ideas on topics related to free market economics.

FACULTY APPLICATION

PLEASE COMPLETE THIS FORM, SIGN BELOW, AND RETURN TO:

Margie King, Assistant Director of the Free Market Forum, at mking@hillsdale.edu

Faculty members are invited to complete applications to participate in the 2017 Free Market Forum, to be held in The Woodlands, Texas. This year’s topic is “Markets, Government, and the Common Good.” The Free Market Forum brings together scholars from economics, history, and political science. While the Forum concentrates on those disciplines, faculty members in business, marketing, or other fields who have an interest in learning more about free markets may also apply. All applicants should be actively engaged in teaching at the college level in order to qualify.

Interested faculty should apply immediately to insure consideration as an attendee. Faculty members who are chosen to participate will attend as guests of the Forum, with all travel expenses, food, and lodging provided. Fully funded attendees are expected to take part in all sessions and organized functions at the Forum, including a morning session on Saturday, October 14.
