Nebraska Governor Pete Ricketts Visits Hillsdale College Gov. Ricketts will present lunch lecture on pursuing limited government

On Monday, November 6, Hillsdale College welcomes Nebraska Governor Pete Ricketts to campus. Ricketts will present a luncheon talk titled “Taming the Leviathan: Reducing the Size and Scope of Government,” which will explore ideas of efficient government and the ways Gov. Ricketts is working to reduce the size of government in his own state.

Lectures are free and open to the community. Media are to RSVP to Emily Stack Davis at 517-803-3745.

WHEN: Monday, November 6, 2017
12 p.m. (noon) ET

WHERE: Hillsdale College’s Searle Center, 315 North West Street, Hillsdale, MI 49242

WHO: Pete Ricketts is the 40th governor of Nebraska. Since taking office in 2015, he has successfully fostered a more effective and more efficient state government. Prior to being elected governor, Gov. Ricketts held various senior leadership positions at TD Ameritrade. He is also the founder of Drakon, LLC, a company geared toward the support of local startups and entrepreneurs. He is a director of the Chicago Cubs baseball team.

Hillsdale College is an independent liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 3.7 million.
