Hillsdale College Radio Station Wins Three Awards From Michigan Association of Broadcasters Radio Free Hillsdale earns first awards in history of program in 2018 Michigan Student Broadcast Awards

Hillsdale, Mich. – Hillsdale College congratulates the students and staff of Radio Free Hillsdale, the College's on-campus, student-run radio station, on winning three awards from the Michigan Association of Broadcasters in the 2018 Michigan Student Broadcast Awards. These were the program's first awards.

"It's thrilling to see our students recognized for their hard work to put quality content on the air," said Scot Bertram, general manager of Radio Free Hillsdale. "We're a very young program, so for our students to earn these awards this year is a great testament to their dedication and talent."

Radio Free Hillsdale, WRFH 101.7 FM, is Hillsdale College's student radio station, where students report, produce and host a variety of news and talk programs. The station's programming won the following awards:

- First Place, Daily Newscast/News Feature: "Ryan Kelly Murphy News" Ryan Kelly Murphy
- First Place, On-Air Personality or Team: "Wait, What Happened?" Sarah Schutte, Chandler Lasch
- Second Place, Sports Announcing Team: "Hillsdale vs. Wayne State Baseball" Cole McNeely, Martin Petersen

Hillsdale's programming competed against colleges from across the state, including schools such as Michigan State University and Central Michigan University, in eight broadcast categories. The Michigan Association of Broadcasters (MAB) presents its Michigan Student Broadcast Awards each year, honoring outstanding radio and television programming from high schools and colleges across Michigan. About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 3.7 million.
