American Foreign Policy

MARCH 25-28, 2020

KIRBY CENTER

Should American foreign policy be guided by a concern for supporting freedom around the world, by a concern for America's national security, or by a combination of both? This seminar, held at Hillsdale's Kirby Center in Washington, D.C., will consider the history and principles of American foreign policy, as well as recent and current controversies.

The Great Conversation in Western Literature

JUNE 21-27, 2020

HILLSDALE CAMPUS

Great literature reflects and shapes the character of a civilization and of its citizens. Thus Homer was called the "schoolteacher of the Greeks." Who have been the schoolteachers of America, and more generally, of the citizens of the West? This seminar will examine the great conversation in Western literature, beginning in ancient Greece and Rome and continuing through Renaissance Europe, Elizabethan England, and the United States.

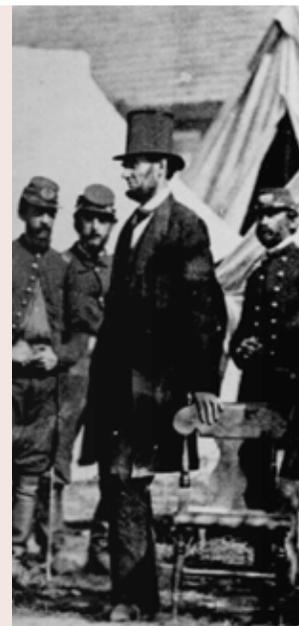

20th Century America

JUNE 7-13, 2020

HILLSDALE CAMPUS

Over the course of the 20th century, the federal government grew dramatically—especially following the advent of the Great Society—as did divisions in American political and social life. Abroad, America emerged as the world's greatest power, fighting and winning two World Wars and a Cold War. This seminar will consider the major political and historical developments and events of the previous century.

The Civil War

JULY 12-18, 2020

HILLSDALE CAMPUS

The principal cause of the Civil War, fought from 1861 to 1865, was the crisis over slavery, which had its roots in the American Founding. This seminar will consider the Founders on slavery, the "positive good" school, the rise of sectionalism, the secession controversy, the statesmanship of Abraham Lincoln, the Constitution in wartime, and Reconstruction.

Constitutional Issues and Controversies

JUNE 21-27, 2020

HILLSDALE CAMPUS

For 230 years, the American Constitution has served as a bulwark of limited government. Over the last century, its authority has been challenged by proponents of progressivism. This seminar will contrast the Founders' view with the progressive view of topics such as the family, civil rights, free speech, foreign policy, and religious liberty.

Economic Theories and Controversies

JULY 12-18, 2020

HILLSDALE CAMPUS

The idea that the free market is the best way to arrange the exchange of goods and services in a free society, an idea embraced by the American Founders, is not without controversy. This seminar will consider the theories of free market economics, theories that oppose the free market, and important economic controversies of the 20th century and of today.

History of Christianity

JULY 26-AUG 1, 2020

HILLSDALE CAMPUS

Christianity is over 2,000 years old, with theological roots stretching back to the time of the ancient Hebrews. Despite widespread persecution, Christianity spread quickly and has had a profound impact on the development of Western Civilization. This seminar will consider the history of Christianity, beginning with the early Church and continuing through the Middle Ages, Renaissance, Enlightenment, and into the modern world.

Written between October 1787 and August 1788, The Federalist Papers is a collection of newspaper essays written by Alexander Hamilton, James Madison, and John Jay in defense of the Constitution.
