Hillsdale College Ranked Among Nation's Best Colleges for Veterans

Learn.org recognizes College for supporting veterans through Freedom Scholarship program

Hillsdale, Mich.— Hillsdale College has been ranked third in the nation on Learn.org's 2019 list of Best Colleges for Veterans in recognition of the College's Freedom Scholarship program for military service members.

Funded entirely by private contributions, the Freedom Scholarship is intended to provide veterans from all military branches the opportunity to receive a liberal arts education at Hillsdale College without any financial restrictions. The scholarship can be applied to the cost of tuition, room, board, fees, and books, and because Hillsdale College does not accept any form of government funding, a student's GI Bill funds are left untouched for future use toward an advanced degree or funding a family member's education.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 4 million.
