Hillsdale College Hosts Evening Lecture with Author Richard Vedder

Notable scholar will detail free-speech abuses and corruption in higher education in America

Washington, D.C. – On Thursday, November 21, the Hillsdale College Washington, D.C. campus will host an evening lecture from Richard Vedder, senior fellow at the Independent Institute, to discuss his book, Restoring the Promise: Higher Education in America. Vedder’s lecture will examine the current issues facing universities around the country—such as free-speech suppression, federal aid programs, and corruption—and how the federal government contributed to them.

The lecture is free and open to the media, but space is limited. Attendees are encouraged to register by visiting the event’s ticketing site.

About Hillsdale in D.C.

Hillsdale College’s presence in Washington, D.C., extends the College’s educational mission to the nation’s capital by teaching and promoting the principles and practice of American constitutionalism. Hillsdale in D.C. seeks to inspire and form students, citizens, practitioners, and statesmen, who will restore America’s principles and revive self-government in the political life of the nation.

In order to extend its formal teaching mission, Hillsdale College has launched The Van Andel Graduate School of Government, a new and unique graduate program in the nation’s capital, for the purpose of teaching political thought, American political history, and statecraft to young professionals working in Washington, D.C.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 4.7 million.
