SEMINAR SERIES ON TEACHING AMERICAN CIVICS

Teaching Lincoln and the Civil War

A one-day seminar for middle and high school teachers of civics, social studies, and history

March 20, 2020

Renaissance Pittsburgh Hotel
107 Sixth Street
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15222

PARTICIPANTS WILL EXPLORE some of the most important issues that arise in teaching the Civil War: the views of America's founders on equality and slavery, and the subsequent breakdown of consensus regarding principles; the failure to reach a compromise in advance of the secession crisis; and Lincoln's constitutional understanding in the face of secession and throughout the war. Lectures will be led by three members of the Hillsdale College faculty:

- Dr. Paul Moreno, William and Berniece Grewcock Professor in Constitutional History
- Dr. Paul Rahe, Charles O. Lee and Louise K. Lee Professor in Western Heritage
- Dr. Matthew Spalding, Vice President of Washington Operations and Dean of the Van Andel Graduate School of Government

This seminar is entirely free of charge!

All participants will receive:

- books to supplement the lectures;
- a pocket copy of the Constitution; and
- a certificate of attendance.

(Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided.)
