Hillsdale College's Halter Center Hosts Veterans Day Open Shoot

Veterans receive a free round on any course in honor of military service

Hillsdale, Mich. – On Saturday, November 9, 2019, Hillsdale College's John Anthony Halter Shooting Sports Education Center will host a Veterans Day Open Shoot from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. ET. All veterans with a valid ID will receive one free round to shoot trap, 5-stand, or Olympic bunker on the Halter Center's nationally recognized ranges.

Guests are eligible for $25 off of a Halter Center membership. Instructors, guns, and ammunition are available on-site. For more details on the Halter Center, visit shootingsports.hillsdale.edu.

About the John Anthony Halter Shooting Sports Education Center

The John Anthony Halter Shooting Sports Education Center is a 113-acre state-of-the-art shooting facility located five miles from the Hillsdale College campus. Opened in 2008, the Center aims to introduce individuals to shooting sports and encourage interest across all levels of experience. To conduct its recreational mission, the Center features ranges for small arms, archery, and shotgun, including Michigan's only international bunker trap. The Halter Center also serves an educational purpose by promoting the principles of the Constitution and teaching beginner and experienced shooters in various classes. Home to Hillsdale College's collegiate shooting teams, the Halter Center is also a resource for the public through camps, conferences, and other programming. About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 4.7 million.
