Hillsdale College Hosts Shooting Sports Camps for All Experience Levels
World-class shooting sports center hosts summer programs for women, couples

Hillsdale, Mich. – Hillsdale College’s John Anthony Halter Shooting Sports Education Center is continuing its summer programming with Couples for Liberty and Ladies for Liberty shooting camps. Couples for Liberty will take place June 27 to 30, 2020 and August 1 to 4, 2020, and Ladies for Liberty will take place July 18 to 21, 2020.

“Each summer, these camps give newcomers and experienced shooters an opportunity to learn more about shooting sports, refine their skills, and connect with others who have similar interests,” said Gena Grant, program coordinator. “We are grateful to our donors and sponsors who make this unique opportunity possible.”

The camps are designed to welcome enthusiasts of all experience levels, offering practice in handgun and shotgun fundamentals as well as lectures from Hillsdale College faculty on the important role of the U.S. Constitution and the Second Amendment. Attendees ages 21 and up of all experience levels are welcome.

Accommodations include rooms on campus at the Dow Center Hotel, catered meals and receptions, a shuttle to and from Detroit Metropolitan Airport, and the use of firearms and ammunition. Participants may also bring their own firearms.

The Couples for Liberty and Ladies for Liberty camps are made possible thanks to the generous sponsorships of Winchester, Smith & Wesson, and Springfield Armory.

Space is limited. Interested parties should contact Program Coordinator Gena Grant at (517) 607-2563 or ladiesforliberty@hillsdale.edu.

About the Halter Center

The John Anthony Halter Shooting Sports Education Center is a 113-acre state-of-the-art shooting facility located five miles from the Hillsdale College campus. Opened in 2008, the Center aims to introduce individuals to shooting sports and encourage interest across all levels of experience. To conduct its recreational mission, the Center features ranges for small arms, archery, and shotgun, including Michigan’s only international bunker trap. The Center also serves an educational purpose by promoting the principles of the Constitution and teaching beginner and experienced shooters in various classes. Home to Hillsdale College’s collegiate shooting teams, the Halter Center is also a resource for the public through camps, conferences, and other programming.

Over 7,000 guests visit the facility, and there are 350 community memberships. For more information, visit <https://www.hillsdale.edu/about/facilities/shooting-sports-center/>.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 5.3 million.
