Hillsdale College Named Among Nation’s Best 387 Colleges by The Princeton Review
Professor quality, accessibility and school newspaper noted

Hillsdale, Mich. — The Princeton Review published its list of the best 387 colleges of 2022 on Aug. 31 and named Hillsdale College among its elite, national rankings. The College is also ranked among the top 158 Midwestern colleges and was recognized for professor accessibility and quality as well as best student newspaper.

“We are grateful for the recognition of our efforts to provide an excellent liberal arts education,” said Christopher VanOrman, provost.

The College’s admissions selectivity rating is 94/99 among the top 387 nationwide. Average high-school GPA for first-time freshman attending the College in Fall 2020 is listed as 3.93.

The Princeton Review omitted specific rankings this year due to complications from the COVID-19 pandemic. According to its press release, it was impossible to survey students about their on-campus experiences when most were attending remotely.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent, nonsectarian, Christian liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 5.8 million.
