Guidelines for Awarding the Lillian Libby Rick Study Abroad Scholarship

Requirements

The applicant must:

1. Have completed four semesters of German or the equivalent by the time of his/her study abroad -
2. Be recommended by a Hillsdale College German professor -
3. Intend to enroll in a study abroad program approved by the German department. Any award will be contingent upon acceptance of its recipient in the approved program -
4. Demonstrate financial need.

Procedure

1. The application submitted must include the student's current G.P.A as well as his/her average in German courses taken at Hillsdale.
2. The application should include signatures certifying that above requirements have been met.
3. The application should be accompanied by a letter explaining the student's reason for wanting to study abroad while stating plans for further study and career.

Awarding of Scholarship

Decisions for awarding this scholarship will be made by members of the German department in consultation with Financial Aid. The following criteria are employed:

1. The merit of the petition as demonstrated by the applicant having fulfilled the above requirements and having shown superior scholarship and character at Hillsdale College.
2. The merit of the applicant's letter of intent.
3. Applications must be submitted by February 15 of the academic year in which the scholarship would be used. Awarding of scholarship will occur well in advance of the planned foreign study.
