Seven New Books Published By Hillsdale College Faculty

HILLSDALE, Mich. — Eight Hillsdale College faculty members published books during the 2021-2022 school year and adjacent summers. Their work spans a range of disciplines and topics.

“The primary duty of Hillsdale College faculty is to teach, but it is always great to see our faculty share their expertise outside of the classroom,” said Chris VanOrman Hillsdale College provost.

The books published by Hillsdale College Faculty include:

- “The 1776 Report” with a preface, notes, and commentary by Dr. Larry P. Arnn and Matthew Spalding
- “The Dying Citizen: How Progressive Elites, Tribalism, and Globalization Are Destroying the Idea of America” by Victor Davis Hanson
- “Benjamin Franklin: Cultural Protestant” by Darryl Hart
- “Rigged: How the Media, Big Tech, and the Democrats Seized Our Elections” by Mollie Hemingway
- “The Handsome Little Cygnet” by Matthew Mehan
- “How the Court Became Supreme: The Origins of American Juristocracy” by Paul D. Moreno
- “American Transformed: The Rise and Legacy of American Progressivism” by R. J. Pestritto

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent, nonsectarian, Christian liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 6.3 million. For more information, visit hillsdale.edu.
