Hillsdale College Shotgun Team Earns Five Medals at USA Shooting Match

HILLSDALE, Mich. — Five members of the Hillsdale College Shotgun Team competed at the USA Shooting Selection match in Tucson, Arizona, from Feb. 3 to 8. The team earned two gold medals, two silver medals, and one bronze medal:

- Collegiate Men: Sophomore Josh Corbin (silver); Sophomore Kyle Fleck (bronze)
- Junior Men: Freshman Jordan Sapp (silver)
- Collegiate Women: Senior Ida Brown (gold)
- Para Trap Women: Sophomore Sophia Bultema (gold)

“Our shotgun athletes are doing very well and have been very dominant within USA Shooting Competitions,” said Caitlin Connor Royer, assistant program development and competition manager for Hillsdale College’s John Anthony Halter Shooting Sports Education Center. “All five of these shooters have very bright futures ahead, and we look forward to seeing what the rest of the season has in store.”

Brown made the Open Women’s Final and will compete at the Hillsdale College Halter Shooting Sports Education Center for a position on the Open World Championship Team. The team will travel to Kerrville, Texas, in March for the Junior Selection, where Corbin, Fleck, and Sapp can qualify for the Junior World Cup and World Championship Teams.

About the John Anthony Halter Shooting Sports Education Center

The Halter Center is a state-of-the-art shooting facility located five miles from the Hillsdale College campus. Opened in 2008, the Center aims to introduce individuals to shooting sports and encourage interest across all levels of experience. The Halter Center also serves an educational purpose by promoting the principles of the Constitution and teaching beginner and experienced shooters in various classes. Home to Hillsdale College’s collegiate shooting teams and the USA national team, the Halter Center is also a resource for the public through camps, conferences, and other programming. For more information, visit shootingsports.hillsdale.edu.

Hillsdale College has been the home of the USA Shooting National Team since 2019 and has hosted USA Shooting Junior Olympic Trap and Skeet development camps and championships. The Center boasts 113 range acres, four international skeet fields, a 22-station sporting clays course, five international bunkers, a small arms range, an action shooting range, a five-stand range, an international archery range, nine American Trap fields, and an AcuSport lodge and grill.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent, nonsectarian, Christian liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 6.2 million.
