Hillsdale College Announces New Podcast Network and Debut of The Larry P. Arnn Show

HILLSDALE, Mich. — Hillsdale College announces the launch of a new podcast, The Larry P. Arnn Show, which will feature college President Larry Arnn interviewing distinguished guests to Hillsdale's campus. The podcast will be hosted on the college's new integrated Hillsdale College Podcast Network, which also features several other podcasts, including The Radio Free Hillsdale Hour, The Hillsdale Dialogues, and The Hillsdale College K-12 Classical Education Podcast.

"The new Larry P. Arnn Show is now available on the Hillsdale College Podcast Network, and we couldn't be more excited to share it with our audience," said Scot Bertram, director of the network. "This podcast is just one part of our mission to radiate the learning, teaching, and discussions that happen here on campus to people everywhere. We invite you to tune in to the Larry P. Arnn Show and all of all other programs to explore the rich intellectual content that Hillsdale College has to offer."

The Larry P. Arnn Show features Hillsdale College President Larry Arnn in one-on-one conversations with distinguished guests from various fields about topics of enduring relevance. The show's first guest is Gov. Ron DeSantis, who visited Hillsdale's campus on April 6. The conversation between Arnn and DeSantis covers a wide range of topics, including education reform, freedom, and the use of executive power.

Hillsdale College first entered into the audio space in 2012 with The Hillsdale Dialogues, a weekly radio hour hosted by nationally syndicated radio personality Hugh Hewitt. It explores the great ideas of Western and American civilization through conversations with Hillsdale College President Larry Arnn and other members of Hillsdale's faculty.

In 2019, Hillsdale College began producing its own content with The Radio Free Hillsdale Hour, hosted by Bertram, which features interviews with Hillsdale faculty, staff, and students, as well as guests from around the country. It covers topics ranging from politics to culture to history. In 2022, it was downloaded more than 1.2 million times and was syndicated on 36 radio stations across the country.

The Hillsdale College Podcast Network's shows will be available on major podcast platforms, including Apple Podcasts, Spotify, and Google Podcasts. Listeners can subscribe to the network's shows for free and receive new episodes as they become available.
