Classmates from 1973 and 1963 Reunite on Campus

Hillsdale College Alumni Relations hosts 50- and 60-year reunion

HILLSDALE, Mich. — Members of the Hillsdale College graduating classes of 1973 and 1963 returned to campus April 12-14 to celebrate their 50- and 60-year class reunions. The three-day event included campus and Halter Center tours, dinner with live music, recognition at Hillsdale College’s Spring Convocation, a memorial service, and class attendance.

“It is always fun to host our 50- and 60-year reunion groups on campus. Hillsdale College was home for them during their studies.” said Colleen McGinness, executive director of alumni relations. “Participants travel from all around the country to visit their alma mater. We are glad to welcome them back.”

Graduation reunions began on campus in 1989 and originally took place during the week of commencement. Reunions now take place during the week of spring convocation so that alumni can see campus in full swing, attend live classes, and meet current students.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent, nonsectarian, Christian liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 6.4 million.
