Hillsdale College Women Commissioners Hold Annual Charger Derby

The fundraiser supported the Women Commissioners' Scholarship Fund

HILLSDALE, Mich. — The Hillsdale College Women Commissioners held their third annual Charger Derby fundraiser at Hillsdale College's Searle Center on Nov. 12.

The event served as a fundraiser for the Women Commissioners' Scholarship Fund, which helps students otherwise unable to attend Hillsdale College with tuition costs. This year's event attracted 230 attendees with more participating remotely by buying a horse or bidding on items through the online auction.

“This event is a fun way to bring the community together and support Hillsdale College students,” said Sue Zbozen-McAlpine, charger derby co-chair for the Women Commissioners. “Since 1979, the Women Commissioners have raised more than $4.6 million for our scholarship fund. The derby was once again a great success, and we raised over $92,000.”

The Charger Derby featured simulated horse races, a silent auction, and refreshments. Participants had the option to buy and name a “horse” for the simulated race for $25 or sponsor one of the 12 races for $250. One hundred percent of the funds raised at the event went toward the scholarship fund.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent, nonsectarian, Christian liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 6.3 million.
