Hillsdale College Hosts Pianist & Composer Robin Spielberg

HILLSDALE, Mich. — The Hillsdale College Fine Arts Center hosted acclaimed pianist, composer, and recording artist Robin Spielberg in Markel Auditorium on Jan. 28. She performed samples from her most recent album “Give My Regards to Broadway.”

“Spielberg’s performance was captivating,” said James Brandon, chairman and professor of theatre at Hillsdale College. “She is a talented artist who brings new life to classic musical pieces known and loved by many.” At the concert, Spielberg performed inspired versions of classic pieces from musical theatre selections, including “I Don’t Know How to Love Him” from “Jesus Christ Superstar,” and “Tomorrow” from “Annie.”

Robin Spielberg is known for her entertaining live performances, expressive techniques, and melodic composition style. She is described as the “heart and soul of interpretive solo piano.” Spielberg has 20 recordings and appeared in over forty compilations worldwide. Her visit to Hillsdale marks the beginning of her 2023-2024 tour.

About Hillsdale College

Hillsdale College is an independent, nonsectarian, Christian liberal arts college located in southern Michigan. Founded in 1844, the College has built a national reputation through its classical liberal arts core curriculum and its principled refusal to accept federal or state taxpayer subsidies, even indirectly in the form of student grants or loans. It also conducts an outreach effort promoting civil and religious liberty, including a free monthly speech digest, Imprimis, with a circulation of more than 6.2 million.
